Explore the Ulster Canal Cycle Trail

The Ulster Canal Cycle Trail travels through a rich scenic tapestry of lowland lakes and rushing rivers. An array of tourist attractions are situated along the route and include forest parks, historic houses and galleries with plenty of opportunity to stop at traditional restaurants and pubs to savour local specialities.

Cycling the Ulster Canal Cycle Trail allows you to unwind in a place where the crisp air and magnificent landscape embrace you.

Attractions Along the Route

Maghera
The village of Maghera is home to Maghera Country Park, located on the calm shores of Lough Neagh. Enjoy the network of waymarked walks through the park, bird watching or fishing. Visit the magical Coney Island to observe the wonderful wildlife.

Peatlands Park
Peatlands Park was one of the first parks to promote and facilitate peatland awareness and issues in the British Isles. Spanning 266 hectares the park has been designated as an Area of Special Scientific Interest and Special Area of Conservation. Explore on foot or on miniature railway the many and varied habitats, smell the cut turf and view the insects, birds, grey squirrels, badgers and hares found in the open bog areas. Open daily. Check signs for park closing times. Free Admission to park. Small admission charge for railway.

The Argory (NT)
The Historic house and gardens at The Argory, former home of the McGeough-Bond family offers the visitor a step back in time by viewing the horse carriages, harness room, acetylene gas plant and laundry. The house has wonderful views of the gardens which are open to the public. Waymarked walking trails are available on the 320 acre estate. Grounds open all year round. Tea room & shop open March to September.

Benburb Valley Park, Priory & Castle
The small village of Benburb has a long historical background and is rich in natural beauty. Explore the grounds of Benburb Valley, Serpentine Priory and Benburb Castle. Walk along the Blackwater River, stop for a picnic or complete the Eco Trail. Visit Greenwood Basket and Stephen Farnan Pottery to watch local craft providers at work and purchase your own piece of handcrafted work.

Glaslough
Glaslough, situated on the margin of the lake derives its name from ‘the green lake’. The village is full of character with largely unspoilt buildings and is home to the Leslie Estate. Visit the Hunting Lodge for refreshments all year round and also on offer are horseriding and cookery classes for all levels. Alternatively indulge yourself with a treatment in the Victoria spa.

Monaghan Town
In Monaghan town visit the impressive 19th century cathedral building, St Louis Heritage Centre or The Old Cross Square and The Market House which hold various arts events throughout the year. The County Museum gives a great insight into the history of the county.

Rossmore Forest Park
Rossmore Forest Park dates back to the early 1600’s, which was acquired by the government in the 1950’s and replanted with a mixture of conifer and broadleaf trees. Choose from four way-marked walking routes taking in the lake, woodland and wild flowers. In early summer the park boasts a colourful rhododendron and azalea display. Cyclists are only permitted on marked cycle path.

Clones Stores
Stop off at Clones Stores for refreshments, home to the Clones Lace Gallery something the town has been famous for many a generation. Walking tours of the town can also be arranged.

Travelling to Glaslough
As you reach the outskirts of Caledon Village and Estate while travelling past Tynan Village & Tynan Abbey Estate and into Glaslough on view are a large collection of picturesque rural dwellings and fine examples of industrial heritage. This includes the remains of the Ulster Canal which last traded in 1929 and the remains of the Great Northern Railway which ran along this route.

Additional Cycling Opportunities

Kingfisher Cycle Trail
The Kingfisher route is mapped and signposted through counties Cavan, Donegal, Fermanagh, Leitrim and Monaghan. Clones is an entry point on the trail.

Siabh Beagh cycle routes
Siabh Beagh cycle routes consist of 5 circular cycle routes signed in an anticlockwise direction. Create a circular loop by cycling the Ulster Canal Cycle Trail from Glaslough to Clones and return to Glaslough following the southern section of three routes (see map).
